

Questions to Consider – Lesson 2

1. How would your life be different if you had more awareness that you are God's dwelling place on earth?
2. Consider these two truths from God's word: You are God's house (Ephesians 2:22) and You are to live in His house (Psalm 23:6, Psalm 27:4). Is this difficult to grasp? Why or why not?
3. Think about what it means for you to be a "living stone." How will this scriptural fact affect how you see yourself as part of the Body of Christ? Will it change your thoughts and behavior? Why or why not?
4. How did the explanation of the two appearances of the Shekinah glory of God 1,000 years apart help you to see God's intent for how you are to live as a believer?
5. How do you relate to this statement in Dave's blog, Where Is Your Tent of Meeting?: "You can't hide a life hidden with God. By its very nature, a life of spiritual intimacy and prayer is quiet and doesn't cry out for attention, but the transformation it brings to an individual's life begins to cry out with power."?
6. Time in the Tent describes Joshua's journey of intimacy with God as he is led towards becoming Moses' successor. Discuss how this time with the Father shaped Joshua into the leader God intended him to be.
7. As a group, or on your own if you are studying this material individually, take these three scriptural realities and define them in a way that makes sense to everyone in the group: Tent of Meeting, Living Stone(s), House of Prayer for All Nations.
8. Do you see your church struggling to define itself in the midst of the culture in which we live? Explain your answer. How might becoming a praying church change this definition?
